

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State organizations which are dedicated to furthering the political debate and democratic processes upon which our governmental system depends; and

Whereas, the Camden County Republican Club has attained considerable distinction for the excellence of the grassroots community involvement of itself as an organization and of its members as individuals; and

Whereas, the Camden County Republican Club was founded in 2000 through the local efforts of Tom Wolfe, Susie Johnson, Elaine Gilley, and Cathy Humeniak and met monthly for the purpose of providing a forum for interested community members; and

Whereas, the Camden County Republican Club has demonstrated steady growth throughout its five-year-long history and now enjoys a roster which includes four hundred twenty-five active and involved members; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative endeavors in order to recognize such outstanding local organized groups as the Camden County Republican Club:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the stellar accomplishments of the recently formed Camden County Republican Club and to convey to its past and present chairmen, other officers, and entire membership this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to the Camden County Republican Club.
